

THE

THIRD PART OF THE BIBLE, (AFTER SOME DIVISION) CONTAINING five excellent Bookes, most commodious for all Christians: Faithfully translated out of the Ebrewe, and expounded with most profitable Annotations upon the harder places.

THE NAMES WHEREOF,
with other the contents of this Booke, followe in the next page.

Imprinted at London by the Deputies of Christopher Barker, printer to the Queene most excellent Majestie. Anno 1591.

Cum gratia & privilegio,